The United States Peace Corps, a United States government agency leading Volunteer programs in 65 countries around the world, is seeking a programming and training specialist (PTS) for its Health Program. The Peace Corps is the largest non-Basotho development volunteer organization in Lesotho. Peace Corps has been operating in Lesotho for over fifty years, in collaboration with Basotho and in support of Lesotho's development goals.

The programming and training specialist (PTS) reports to and is supervised by the program manager (PM) for the Health Project. S/he is directly responsible for assisting in developing, implementing, and managing all in-country Peace Corps projects in the Health sector. S/he is responsible for assisting the PM with providing supervision, support, and training to an average of 60 Peace Corps Volunteers (PCVs) at all times. The PTS participates in the development and implementation of in-country policies; negotiates projects with middle-to-senior level government officials; and participates in decisions that affect the overall operation of Peace Corps/Lesotho.

The PTS implements approved activities in order to provide continuing programming and training support for staff and Volunteers. During the pre-service training (PST) cycles, the PTS will be full-time lead technical trainer in the Health sector and work under the direct supervision of the training manager (TM) and PM.

This position requires very frequent travel throughout all districts of Lesotho. It will also require some work on weekends for training activities.

This is a Personal Services Contract (PSC) position to be based at the Peace Corps/Lesotho office in Maseru.

Interested applicants should contact Peace Corps/Lesotho Human Resources Offices at <https://www.peacecorps.gov/lesotho/contracts/> to obtain the full statement of work (SOW) and application requirements.

Qualifications Required:

Applicants must address each required qualification listed below with specific and comprehensive information supporting each item. Failure to do so will result in a determination that the applicant is not qualified. Preference is that the information be provided in a table format like the one available on the contract website.

Successful candidates will have:

- 1) Education
 - Bachelor's degree in any subject
- 2) Language
 - Excellent verbal and written communication skills in both English and Sesotho
- 3) Work Experience
 - At least five years' work experience in public health, health promotion approaches, or in-depth public health practices
 - At least two years' experience working in a supervisory capacity, leading a team, or coordinating work of others
- 4) Skills and Abilities
 - In-depth knowledge of HIV programming in Lesotho
 - Proven ability in conducting training needs assessments, designing materials to respond to needs assessments, and delivering training sessions to adult learners
 - Demonstrated proficiency with computers and common applications, including the Microsoft Office suite (Word, Excel, PowerPoint, and Outlook) and online conferencing software (Zoom, Skype, Teams, etc.)
 - Experience in mobilizing, motivating, and working with counterparts and community groups
 - Proven ability to work independently with minimal supervision as well as in a team
 - Ability and willingness to travel for extended periods of time throughout all 10 districts of Lesotho, as well as to take calls and/or work after hours and on weekends

Qualifications Desired:

In addition, preference will be given to those with:

- A Bachelor's degree or higher in public health, health sciences, or related fields
- Demonstrated success in working as part of a multi-cultural team
- Experience working with volunteers or in a volunteer organization
- Knowledge of gender and diversity issues in Lesotho and their effect on various aspects of development
- Demonstrated proficiency in designing online or blended learning programs
- Experience in project management and development
- Superior organizational skills and ability to multi-task
- Proficiency in Xhosa or Septhuti
